Nearly 50 km south , we visit the National Park called “Khao Sam Roi Yod” ( the valley of 300 hills.) The forests on the mountains are home to some mammals like fishing cats, dusky leaf monkeys, crab-eating acaques, Malayan porcupines, Indochinese serows and Sunda slow lorises.

We will travel by a small boat to the beach from the point we need 30 minutes to reach the Drop Stone Cave Phraya Nakhon. In the cave, King Rama5 built a pavilion, the landmark of the province Prachuapkhirikhan.

From the national park, we will continue to Hua Hin’s Elephant Village and enjoy elephant ride for about 30 minutes in natural surroundings. Fruits and refreshment will be served before returning back to the hotel.
